First Reading Wisdom of Solomon 6.12–16

A reading from the book of Wisdom.

12 Wisdom is radiant and unfading,
and she is easily discerned by those who love her,
and is found by those who seek her.
13 She hastens to make herself known to those who desire her.
14 One who rises early to seek her will have no
difficulty,
for she will be found sitting at the gate.
15 To fix one's thought on her is perfect
understanding,
and one who is vigilant on her account will soon be
free from care,
16 because she goes about seeking those worthy of
her,
and she graciously appears to them in their paths,
and meets them in every thought.

CANTICLE Wisdom of Solomon 6.17–20

R Gloria to the One who gives me wisdom.

17 The beginning of wisdom is the most sincere desire
for instruction,
and concern for instruction is love of her,
18 and love of her is the keeping of her laws,
and giving heed to her laws is assurance of
immortality,
19 and immortality brings one near to God;
20 so the desire for wisdom leads to a kingdom. R

SECOND READING 1 Thessalonians 4.13–18

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Thessalonians.

13 We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters,
about those who have died,
so that you may not grieve as others do who have no
hope.
14 For since we believe that Jesus died and rose
again,
even so, through Jesus,
God will bring with him those who have died.
15 For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord,
that we who are alive,
who are left until the coming of the Lord,
will by no means precede those who have died.
16 For the Lord himself, with a cry of command,
with the archangel's call and with the sound of God's trumpet,
will descend from heaven,
and the dead in Christ will rise first.
17 Then we who are alive, who are left,
will be caught up in the clouds
together with them to meet the Lord in the air;
and so we will be with the Lord for ever.
18 Therefore encourage one another with these words.

GOSPEL Matthew 25.1–13

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Jesus spoke this parable to the disciples:

1 'The kingdom of heaven will be like this.

Ten bridesmaids took their lamps
and went to meet the bridegroom.

2 Five of them were foolish, and five were wise.

3 When the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil
with them;

4 but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps.

5 As the bridegroom was delayed,
all of them became drowsy and slept.

6 But at midnight there was a shout,
"Look! Here is the bridegroom!
Come out to meet him."

7 Then all those bridesmaids got up and trimmed their lamps.

8 The foolish said to the wise,

"Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out."

9 But the wise replied,

"No! there will not be enough for you and for us;
you had better go to the dealers and buy some for yourselves."

10 And while they went to buy it, the bridegroom came,
and those who were ready went with him into the
wedding banquet;
and the door was shut.

11 Later the other bridesmaids came also, saying,
"Lord, lord, open to us."

12 But he replied, "Truly I tell you, I do not know you."

13 Keep awake therefore,
for you know neither the day nor the hour.'
