FIRST READING Ezekiel 36.24–28

A reading from the book of the prophet Ezekiel.

The word of the LORD came to me:

24 I will take you from the nations,
and gather you from all the countries,
and bring you into your own land.

25 I will sprinkle clean water upon you,
and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses,
and from all your idols I will cleanse you.

26 A new heart I will give you,
and a new spirit I will put within you;
and I will remove from your body the heart of stone
and give you a heart of flesh.

27 I will put my spirit within you,
and make you follow my statutes
and be careful to observe my ordinances.

28 Then you shall live in the land that I gave to your ancestors;
and you shall be my people,
and I will be your God.

PSALM 1

R Happy are they who trust in the Lord.

R The Lord knows the way of the righteous.

1 Happy are they who have not walked
in the counsel of the wicked,

nor lingered in the way of sinners,
nor sat in the seats of the scornful!

2 Their delight is in the law of the Lord,
and they meditate on his law day and night. R

3 They are like trees planted by streams of water,
bearing fruit in due season,
with leaves that do not wither;

everything they do shall prosper. R

4 It is not so with the wicked:

they are like chaff which the wind blows away;

5 Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright
when judgement comes,

nor the sinner in the council of the righteous.

6 For the Lord knows the way of the righteous,
but the way of the wicked is doomed. R

FIRST READING Acts 1.15–17, 21–26

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

15 In those days Peter stood up among the believers (together the crowd numbered about one hundred and twenty people).

He said,

16 'Friends, the scripture had to be fulfilled,
which the Holy Spirit through David foretold concerning Judas,

who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus –

17 for he was numbered among us
and was allotted his share in this ministry.

21 So one of the men who have accompanied us throughout the time that the Lord Jesus went in and
out among us,

22 beginning from the baptism of John
until the day when he was taken up from us –
one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection.'

23 So they proposed two,
Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias.

24 Then they prayed and said,

'Lord, you know everyone's heart.

Show us which one of these two you have chosen 25 to take the place in this ministry and apostleship
from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place.'

26 And they cast lots for them,
and the lot fell on Matthias;
and he was added to the eleven apostles.

GOSPEL John 17.6–19

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Jesus looked up to heaven and prayed:

6 'Father, I have made your name known
to those whom you gave me from the world.

They were yours, and you gave them to me,
and they have kept your word.

7 Now they know that everything you have given me is
from you;

8 for the words that you gave to me

I have given to them,

and they have received them

and know in truth that I came from you;

and they have believed that you sent me.

9 I am asking on their behalf;

I am not asking on behalf of the world,
but on behalf of those whom you gave me,
because they are yours.

10 All mine are yours, and yours are mine;
and I have been glorified in them.

11 And now I am no longer in the world,

but they are in the world,

and I am coming to you.

Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me,

so that they may be one, as we are one.

12 While I was with them,

I protected them in your name that you have given me.

I guarded them, and not one of them was lost

except the one destined to be lost,

so that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 But now I am coming to you,

and I speak these things in the world

so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves.

14 I have given them your word,

and the world has hated them

because they do not belong to the world,

just as I do not belong to the world.

15 I am not asking you to take them out of the world,

but I ask you to protect them from the evil one.

16 They do not belong to the world,

just as I do not belong to the world.

17 Sanctify them in the truth;

your word is truth.

18 As you have sent me into the world,

so I have sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself,

so that they also may be sanctified in truth.'
