

Hi Everyone. This is a time for Remembrance. We all have someone that we would like to remember, or an event that easily brings tears to our eyes. Why not make your poppy this year, and wear it on your coat or jacket.

(Sorry)

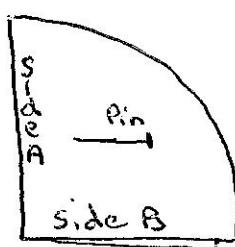

Materials. Red, Green & Black felt. Red & Black cotton. 4 pins, needle, scissors, small safety pin, small black button & UHU glue. I always use this glue as it always works.

Method. Draw & cut out 4 circles on the red felt with a diameter of $2\frac{1}{2}$ " (I used a pastry cutter). Use the template and cut out 2 green leaves. Cut a small black felt circle about 1" in diameter.

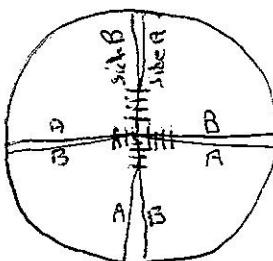

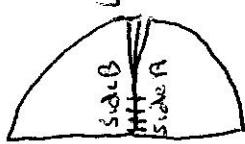

1. Fold & pin to hold, the circles into quarters

2

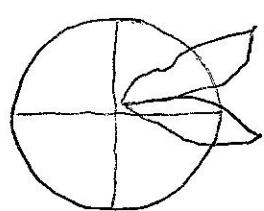

- 3 Place 2 quarters together, matching a side A to a side B. Sew about 4 stitches to join together, as shown.

4. Continue joining the quarters together

5. Turn to the front & sew the small black button in the middle.

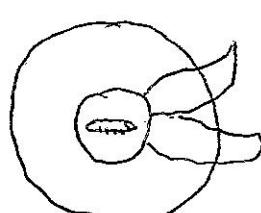

6. Turn to the back & stick on the green leaves. Just place glue on a quarter of each leaf.

7. Sew the small safety pin on the black circle. This will be your fastener for your poppy.

8. Sew the black circle over the back of the poppy or use glue.

Voila - you have completed your poppy.
Well done.
